

When do I need to move out?

The company that does our check outs and inventory management will be in touch with you with a scheduled time on the last day of the tenancy for when the check-out will take place. Ideally you would be present during the final inspection but if the house is empty they will proceed in doing the check-out but it will not affect your statutory rights.